MY PAYMENT NETWORK AND KINDERSTREET ENTER INTO DISTRIBUTION AND INTEGRATION PARTNERSHIP

Affiliation Gives School Districts Robust Solution to Handle Payment Collections For Extended Care And Summer Camp Programs

CORTE MADERA, Calif. March 6, 2007 –My Payment Network, Inc., a pacesetter in offering electronic invoice presentment and payment (EIPP) services to the education industry, and Kinderstreet, a leading provider of web-based management and communication solutions for PreK-12 extended learning programs, have entered into a strategic alliance.

The new partnership will see the integration of My Payment Network's leading PreK-12 eCommerce application, SchoolPay[®], into Kinderstreet's afterschool and early childhood software solutions. Powered by My Payment Network, the solution will be fully incorporated into Kinderstreet's solutions and offered under the Kinderstreet brand.

"This alliance with Kinderstreet was a natural fit," said David Dunaway, chief executive officer of My Payment Network. "Our product offers an invaluable eCommerce service to school administrators which will significantly reduce the administrative costs incurred by simply converting manual accounting practices to electronic solutions."

Kevin Custer, chief executive officer of Kinderstreet, echoed that sentiment. “Everybody wins with this solution. It simplifies the efforts of those responsible for the often time-consuming job associated with invoicing and collecting payments; while giving parents one of the industry’s easiest interfaces to use when making payments for in-school, after-school and summer camp programs. “

The enhanced functionality offered through the new service will be seamless to the Kinderstreet customer base, and will go live later this month.
